1. Background to the Promotion of Access to Information Act

- 1.1 The Promotion of Access to Information Act, No. 2 of 2000 ('the Act') was enacted on 3 February 2000, giving effect to the constitutional right of section 32 of the Bill of Rights, as contained in the Constitution of the Republic of South Africa, No. 108 of 1996 ('the Constitution'), of access to any information held by the state and any information that is held by another person and that is required for the exercise or protection of any rights.
- 1.2 In terms of section 51 of the Act, all private bodies are required to compile an information manual, known as a 'PAIA Manual'.
- 1.3 Where a request is made in terms of the Act, the body to whom the request is made is obliged to release the information, subject to applicable legislative and/or regulatory requirements, except where the Act expressly provides that the information may or must not be released. The Act sets out the relevant procedure to be adopted when requesting information from a public or private body.

2. Van Rooyen & Efstratiou

- 2.1 Van Rooyen & Efstratiou conducts business as a law firm.
- 2.2 This PAIA Manual of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou is available at its premises:
No 57 - Sixth Avenue,
Newton Park,
Port Elizabeth
as well as on its website: www.vrelaw.co.za.

3. Purpose of the PAIA Manual

- 3.1 The purpose of this PAIA Manual is intended to ensure that Van Rooyen & Efstratiou complies with the Act and fosters a culture of transparency and accountability within Van Rooyen & Efstratiou by giving effect to the right to information that is required for the exercise or protection of any right and to actively promote a society in which the people of South Africa have effective access to information to enable them to exercise and protect their rights.
- 3.2 In order to promote effective governance of private bodies, it is necessary to ensure that everyone is empowered and educated to understand their rights in terms of the Act in order for them to exercise their rights in relation to public and private bodies.

- 3.3 Section 9 of the Act recognises that the right to access information cannot be unlimited and should be subjected to justifiable limitations, including, but not limited to:
- 3.3.1 limitations aimed at the reasonable protection of privacy;
 - 3.3.2 commercial confidentiality; and
 - 3.3.3 effective, efficient and good governance;
- and in a manner which balances that right with any other rights, including such rights contained in the Bill of Rights in the Constitution.
- 3.4 This PAIA Manual has been drafted in accordance with the PAIA and POPIA Act, as well as all amendments to PAIA, with regards to the requirements of this manual, as effected by POPIA. This manual will be amended to reflect all the necessary provisions, as required by the Information Officer, once the Information Officers publishes a template on its website.
- 3.5 In addition, this PAIA Manual complies with the requirements of Section 10 of the Act and recognises that upon commencement of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013, that the appointed Information Regulator will be responsible to regulate compliance with the Act and its Regulations by public and private bodies.

5. The Information Officer [Section 51(1)(b)]

- 5.1 The Act prescribes the appointment of an Information Officer for private bodies where such Information Officer is responsible to, inter alia, assess requests for access to information. The Head of a private body fulfils such a function in terms of section 51. Van Rooyen & Efstratiou has opted to appoint an Information Officer to assess requests for access to information, as well as to oversee its required functions in terms of the Act.
- 5.2 The Information Officer appointed in terms of the Act also includes the Information Officer as referred to in the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2014. The Information Officer oversees the functions and responsibilities as required in terms of both this Act, as well as the duties and responsibilities in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013, after registering with the Information Regulator.

- 5.3 The Information Officer may appoint, where it is deemed necessary, Deputy Information Officers, as allowed for in terms of section 17 of the Act, as well as section 56 of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013. This is in order to render Van Rooyen & Efstratiou as accessible as reasonably possible for requesters of its records and to ensure fulfilment of its obligations and responsibilities as prescribed in terms of section 55 of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013. All requests for information in terms of the Act must be addressed to the Information Officer.

Although we have applied our best efforts to supply a list of applicable legislation, it is possible that this list may be incomplete, or possibly too extensive. Whenever it comes to our attention that existing or new legislation allows a Requester access on a basis other than as set out in PAIA, we shall update the list accordingly. If a Requester believes that a right of access to a record exists in terms of other legislation listed above or any other legislation, the Requester is required to indicate what legislative right the request is based on, to allow the Information Officer the opportunity of considering the request in light thereof.*

- 10.2 It is further recorded that the accessibility of documents and records may be subject to the grounds of refusal set out in this PAIA Manual.

11. Detail to facilitate a request for access to a record of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou [Section 51(1)(e)]

- 11.1 The requester must comply with all the procedural requirements contained in the Act relating to the request for access to a record.
- 11.2 The requester must complete the prescribed form enclosed herewith and submit same as well as payment of a request fee and a deposit (if applicable) to the Information Officer or the Deputy Information Officer at the postal or physical address, fax number or electronic mail address as noted in clause 5 above.
- 11.3 The prescribed form must be filled in with sufficient information to enable the Information Officer to identify the:
 - 11.3.1 record or records requested; and
 - 11.3.2 identity of the requester.
- 11.4 The requester should indicate which form of access is required and specify a postal address, email address or a fax number of the requester in the Republic.

- 11.5 The requester must state that he/she requires the information in order to exercise or protect a right, and clearly state what the nature of the right is so to be exercised or protected. The requester must clearly specify why the record is necessary to exercise or protect such right [Section 53(2)(d)].
- 11.6 Van Rooyen & Efstratiou will process the request within 30 (thirty) days, unless the requester has stated special reasons, to the satisfaction of the Information Officer, that circumstances dictate that the above time periods not be complied with.
- 11.7 The requester shall be advised whether access is granted or denied in writing. If, in addition, the requester requires the reasons for the decision in any other manner, the requester will be obliged to state which manner and the particulars required.
- 11.8 If a request is made on behalf of another person, then the requester must submit proof of the capacity in which the requester is making the request to the reasonable satisfaction of the Information Officer [Section 53(2)(f)].
- 11.9 If an individual is unable to complete the prescribed form because of illiteracy or disability, such a person may make the request orally.
- 11.10 The requester must pay the prescribed fee, before any further processing can take place.
- 11.11 All information as listed in clause 11 herein should be provided and failing which the process will be delayed until the required information is provided. The prescribed time periods will not commence until the requester has furnished all the necessary and required information. The Information officer shall serve a record, if possible, and only grant access to that portion requested and which is not prohibited from being disclosed.

12. Refusal of access to records

Grounds to refuse access:

A private body, such as Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, is entitled to refuse a request for information.

12.1 The main grounds for Van Rooyen & Efstratiou to refuse a request for information relates to the:

- 12.1.1 Mandatory protection of the privacy of a third party who is a natural person or a deceased person (section 63) or a juristic person, as included in the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013, which would involve the unreasonable disclosure of personal information of that natural or juristic person;

- 12.1.2 Mandatory protection of personal information and for disclosure of any personal information to, in addition to any other legislative, regulatory or contractual agreements, comply with the provisions of the Protection of Personal Information Act, 4 of 2013;
- 12.1.3 Mandatory protection of the commercial information of a third party (section 64) if the record contains:
 - 12.1.3.1 trade secrets of the third party;
 - 12.1.3.2 financial, commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of that third party;
 - 12.1.3.3 information disclosed in confidence by a third party to Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, if the disclosure could put that third party at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
- 12.1.4 Mandatory protection of confidential information of third parties (section 65) if it is protected in terms of any agreement;
- 12.1.5 Mandatory protection of the safety of individuals and the protection of property (section 66);
- 12.1.6 Mandatory protection of records which would be regarded as privileged in legal proceedings (section 67).
- 12.2 The commercial activities (section 68) of a private body, such as Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, which may include:
 - 12.2.1 trade secrets of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou;
 - 12.2.2 financial commercial, scientific or technical information which disclosure could likely cause harm to the financial or commercial interests of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou;
 - 12.2.3 information which, if disclosed, could put Van Rooyen & Efstratiou at a disadvantage in negotiations or commercial competition;
 - 12.2.4 a computer program which is owned by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou and which is protected by copyright;
 - 12.2.5 the research information (section 69) of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou or a third party, if its disclosure would disclose the identity of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, the researcher or the subject matter of the research and would place the research at a serious disadvantage.
- 12.3 Requests for information that are clearly frivolous or vexatious, or which involve an unreasonable diversion of resources shall be refused.

- 12.4 All requests for information will be assessed on their own merits and in accordance with the applicable legal principles and legislation.
- 12.5 If a requested record cannot be found or if the record does not exist, the Information Officer shall, by way of an affidavit or affirmation, notify the requester that it is not possible to give access to the requested record. Such a notice will be regarded as a decision to refuse a request for access to the record concerned for the purpose of the Act. If the record should later be found, the requester shall be given access to the record in the manner stipulated by the requester in the prescribed form, unless the Information Officer refuses access to such record.

13. Remedies available when Van Rooyen & Efstratiou refuses a request

13.1 Internal remedies

Van Rooyen & Efstratiou does not have internal appeal procedures. The decision made by the Information officer is final. Requesters will have to exercise such external remedies at their disposal if the request for information is refused, and the requester is not satisfied with the answer supplied by the Information Officer.

13.2 External remedies

- 13.2.1 A requester that is dissatisfied with the Information Officer's refusal to disclose information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief.
- 13.2.3 A third party dissatisfied with the Information Officer's decision to grant a request for information, may within 30 (thirty) days of notification of the decision, apply to a court for relief. For purposes of the Act, the courts that have jurisdiction over these applications are the Constitutional Court, the High Court or another court of similar status and a Magistrate's Court designated by the Minister of Justice and Constitutional Development, and which is presided over by a designated Magistrate.

14. Access to records held by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou

14.1 Prerequisites for access by personal/other requester

14.1.1 Records held by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou may be accessed by request only once the prerequisite requirements for access have been met.

14.1.2 A requester is any person making a request for access to a record of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou.

There are two types of requesters:

14.1.2.1 Personal requester

14.1.2.1.1 A personal requester is a requester who is seeking access to a record containing personal information about the requester.

14.1.2.1.2 Van Rooyen & Efstratiou will voluntarily provide the requested information, or give access to any record with regard to the requester's personal information. The prescribed fee for reproduction of the information requested will be charged.

14.1.2.2 Other requester

14.1.2.2.1 This requester (other than a personal requester) is entitled to request access to information on third parties.

14.1.2.2.2 In considering such a request, Van Rooyen & Efstratiou will adhere to the provisions of the Act. Section 71 requires that the Information Officer take all reasonable steps to inform a third party to whom the requested record relates of the request, informing him/her that he/she may make a written or oral representation to the Information Officer why the request should be refused or, where required, give written consent for the disclosure of the information.

Van Rooyen & Efstratiou is not obliged to voluntarily grant access to such records. The requester must fulfil the prerequisite requirements, in accordance with the requirements of the Act and as stipulated in Chapter 5, Part 3, including the payment of a request and access fee.

15. Prescribed fees [Section 51(1)(f)]

15.1 Fees provided by the Act

15.1.1 The Act provides for two types of fees, namely:

15.1.1.1 a request fee, which is a form of administration fee to be paid by all requesters except personal requesters, before the request is considered and is not refundable; and 15.1.1.2 an access fee, which is paid by all requesters in the event that a request for access is granted. This fee is inclusive of costs involved by the private body in obtaining and preparing a record for delivery to the requester.

15.1.2 When the request is received by the Information Officer, such officer shall by notice require the requester, other than a personal requester, to pay the prescribed request fee, before further processing of the request (section 54(1)).

15.1.3 If the search for the record has been made and the preparation of the record for disclosure, including arrangement to make it available in the requested form, requires more than the hours prescribed in the regulations for this purpose, the Information Officer shall notify the requester to pay as a deposit the prescribed portion of the access fee which would be payable if the request is granted.

- 15.1.4 The Information Officer shall withhold a record until the requester has paid the fees as indicated below.
- 15.1.5 A requester whose request for access to a record has been granted, must pay an access fee that is calculated to include, where applicable, the request fee, the process fee for reproduction and for search and preparation, and for any time reasonably required in excess of the prescribed hours to search for and prepare the record for disclosure including making arrangements to make it available in the request form.
- 15.1.6 If a deposit has been paid in respect of a request for access, which is refused, then the Information Officer concerned must repay the deposit to the requester.

16. Reproduction fee

- 16.1 Where Van Rooyen & Efstratiou has voluntarily provided the Minister with a list of categories of records that will automatically be made available to any person requesting access thereto, the only charge that may be levied for obtaining such records, will be a fee for reproduction of the record in question.

Reproduction of information fees	Fees to be charged
Information in an A4-size page photocopy or part thereof	R1.10
A printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof	R0.75
A copy in computer-readable format, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compact Disc • USB Stick 	R70.00
A transcription of visual images, in a A4-size page or part thereof	R40.00
A copy of visual images	R60.00
A transcription of an audio record for an A4-size page or part thereof	R20.00
A copy of an audio record	R30.00

16.2 Request fees

Where a requester submits a request for access to information held by an institution on a person other than the requester himself/herself, a request fee in the amount of R50.00 is payable up-front before the institution will further process the request received.

16.3 Access fees

- 16.3.1 An access fee is payable in all instances where a request for access to information is granted, except in those instances where payment of an access fee is specially excluded in terms of the Act, or an exclusion is determined by the Minister in terms of section 54(8).

The applicable access fees which will be payable are:

Access of Information Fees	Fees to be Charged
Information in an A4-size page photocopy or part thereof	R1.10
A printed copy of an A4-size page or part thereof	R0.75
A copy in computer-readable format, for example: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Compact Disc • USB Stick 	R70.00
A transcription of visual images, in a A4-size page or part thereof	R40.00
A copy of visual images	R60.00
A transcription of an audio record for an A4-size page or part thereof	R20.00
A copy of an audio record * Per hour or part of an hour reasonably required for such a search	R30.00*
Where a copy of a record needs to be posted the actual postal fee is payable

16.4 Deposits

16.4.1 Where the institution receives a request for access to information held on a person other than the requester herself/himself, and the Information Officer upon receipt of the request is of the opinion that the preparation of the required record of disclosure will take more than 6 (six) hours, a deposit is payable by the requester.

16.4.2 The amount of the deposit is equal to 1/3 (one third) of the amount of the applicable access fee.

16.5 Collection fees

16.5.1 The initial “request fee” of R50.00 should be deposited into the company bank account and a copy of the deposit slip, application form and other correspondence / documents, forwarded to the Information Officer via fax. The banking details will be provided on request thereof.

16.5.2 The Information Officer will collect the initial “request fee” of applications received directly by the Information Officer via e-mail.

16.5.3 All fees are subject to change as allowed for in the Act and as a consequence such escalations may not always be immediately available at the time of the request being made. Requesters shall be informed of any changes in the fees prior to making a payment.

17. Decision

17.1 Time allowed to institution

17.1.1 Van Rooyen & Efstratiou will, within 30 (thirty) days of receipt of the request, decide whether to grant or decline the request and give notice with reasons (if required) to that effect.

17.1.2 The 30 (thirty) day period within which Van Rooyen & Efstratiou has to decide whether to grant or refuse the request, may be extended for a further period of not more than 30 (thirty) days if the request is for a large amount of information, or the request requires a search for information held at another office of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou and the information cannot reasonably be obtained within the original 30 (thirty) day period.

17.1.3 Van Rooyen & Efstratiou will notify the requester in writing should an extension be sought.

18. Protection of personal information that is processed by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou

18.1 Chapter 3 of POPIA provides for the minimum conditions for lawful processing of personal information by a responsible party. These conditions may not be derogated from unless specific exclusions apply as outlined in POPIA.

18.2 Van Rooyen & Efstratiou needs personal information relating to both individual and juristic persons in order to carry out its business and organisational functions. The manner in which this information is processed and the purpose for which it is processed is determined by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou. Van Rooyen & Efstratiou is accordingly a responsible party for the purposes of POPIA and will ensure that the personal information of a data subject:

18.2.1 Is processed lawfully, fairly and transparently. This includes the provision of appropriate information to data subjects when their data is collected by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, in the form of privacy or data collection notices. Van Rooyen & Efstratiou must also have a legal basis (for example, consent) to process personal information;

18.2.2 Is processed only for the purposes for which it was collected;

18.2.3 Will not be processed for a secondary purpose unless that further processing is compatible with the original purpose, or any of the exclusions regarding the prohibition of further processing applies;

18.2.4 Is adequate, relevant and not excessive for the purposes for which it was collected;

18.2.5 Is accurate and kept up to date;

18.2.6 Will not be kept for longer than necessary;

18.2.7 Is processed in accordance with integrity and confidentiality principles; this includes physical and organisational measures to ensure that personal information, both in physical and electronic form, are subject to an appropriate level of security when stored, used and communicated by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, in order to protect it against access and acquisition by unauthorised persons and accidental loss, destruction or damage;

18.2.8 Is processed in accordance with the rights of data subjects, where applicable. Data subjects have the right to:

- (a) Be notified that their personal information is being collected by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou, as well as the purpose for which it is being collected. The data subject also has the right to be notified in the event of a data breach;
- (b) Know whether Van Rooyen & Efstratiou holds personal information about them, and to access that information. Any request for information or access to information must be handled in accordance with the provisions of this Manual;
- (c) Request the correction or deletion of inaccurate, irrelevant, excessive, outdated, incomplete, misleading or unlawfully obtained personal information;
- (d) Object to Van Rooyen & Efstratiou's use of their personal information and request the deletion of such personal information (deletion would be subject to Van Rooyen & Efstratiou's record keeping requirements, rules, obligations and policies);
- (e) Object to the processing of their personal information for the purposes of direct marketing by means of unsolicited electronic communications; and
- (f) Submit a complaint to the Information Regulator regarding any alleged infringement on any of the rights protected under POPIA and PAIA and to institute civil proceedings regarding the alleged non-compliance with the protection of his/her or its personal information.

18.3 Purpose of the processing of personal information by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou

As outlined above, personal information may only be processed for a specific, legal and clearly defined purpose. The purposes for which Van Rooyen & Efstratiou processes or will process personal information is set out in Part 1 of Appendix 2.

18.4 Categories of data subjects and personal information / special personal information relating thereto

As per section 1 of POPIA, a data subject may either be a natural or a juristic person. Part 2 of Appendix 2 sets out the various categories of data subjects that Van Rooyen & Efstratiou processes personal information of and the types of personal information relating there to.

18.5 Recipients of personal information

Part 3 of Appendix 2 outlines the recipients to whom Van Rooyen & Efstratiou may provide personal information of their data subjects.

18.6 Cross-border flows of personal information

18.6.1 Section 72 of POPIA provides that personal information may only be transferred out of the Republic of South Africa if the:

- (a) Recipient country can offer such data an “adequate level” of protection. This means that its data privacy laws must be substantially similar to the conditions for lawful processing as contained in POPIA; or
- (b) Data subject consents to the transfer of their personal information across borders; or
- (c) Transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the data subject and the responsible party; or
- (d) Transfer is necessary for the performance of a contractual obligation between the responsible party and a third party, in the interest of the data subject; or
- (e) The transfer is for the benefit of the data subject, and if it were, the data subject would in all likelihood provide such consent.

18.6.2 Part 4 of Appendix 2 sets out the planned cross-border transfers of personal information and the condition(s) from above that applies thereto.

18.7 Description of information security measures to be implemented by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou

Part 5 of Appendix 2 sets out the types of security measures to be implemented by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou in order to ensure that personal information is respected and protected. A preliminary assessment of the sustainability of the information security measures implemented by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou may be conducted in order to ensure that the personal information that is processed by Van Rooyen & Efstratiou is safeguarded and processed in accordance with the conditions for lawful processing.

18.8 Objection to the processing of personal information by a data subject

Section 11(3) of POPIA and regulation 2 of the POPIA Regulations provide that a data subject may, at any time, object to the processing of his/her/its personal information in the prescribed manner – a form for which is attached to this manual, as Appendix 3, subject to any relevant exceptions contained in POPIA.

18.9 Requests for correction or deletion of personal information

Section 24 of POPIA and regulation 3 of the POPIA Regulations provide that a data subject may request for their personal information to be corrected/deleted in the prescribed form, attached as Appendix 4 to this manual.

19. Availability and updating of the PAIA Manual

19.1 Regulation Number R187 of 15 February 2002

19.1.1 This PAIA Manual is available in terms of Regulation Number R. 187 of 15 February 2002. Van Rooyen & Efstratiou will update this PAIA Manual at such intervals as may be deemed necessary.

19.1.2 This PAIA Manual of Van Rooyen & Efstratiou is available to view at its premises and on its website.
